

L1 reading rule. Solid blue means a role uses a Linebooker experience; amber dashed means an external contract or event source; green means conceptual implementation or placement. Group colors identify viewpoint, not technology. Immutable audit means durable, tamper-evident business history; it does not require every domain to use event sourcing. Currency is selected by marketplace, legal entity and contract; the country code shown is a policy default, never an inference from the user's location.

